Policy of the college for offering guidance for competitive examinations and career counselling

College has created a separate committee under IQAC for guidance on Competitive examinations and Career Counselling.

This committee organizes guest lectures, seminars, workshops on different aspects of competitive examinations and career counselling.

Students aspiring for competitive examinations are being guided on the basic steps of form filling, submission of online forms etc.

Library facility is provided to those students.

Books and other related study materials are made available to the students.

Advertisements published in the Employment News and other newspapers are displayed on the college notice boards regularly.

From the academic year 2020-2021, online course was stated by Ministry of Higher & Technical Education, Maharashtra State. College students are promoted to participate in this course.

Special online coaching for competitive examinations was done during the lockdown period of Covid pandemic in the academic year 2019-2020.

For Career Counselling, special sessions are conducted for the final year students by the college faculty and guest lecturers.
